¹ If you are using a previous surname due to marriage termination or death of your spouse, you must present a divorce certificate, decree absolute or other Canadian court order, or a death certificate as proof you are entitled to revert to your previous surname.

² Two supporting documents are required to prove you reside in Manitoba and they must be dated within 90 days of the date of application. If rural customers do not have two supporting documents containing their physical address, the second document can contain their mailing address.

³ Manitoba Division/District Registrar birth certificates are not accepted.

⁴ Information on Manitoba issued birth certificates will be verified by the Manitoba Vital Statistics Agency.

⁵ Information on Certificates of Citizenship will be verified by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada.
